

Silver Caregivers Co-operative Limited (SCCL)

UEN: T13CS0001B

1. What is SCCL?

SCCL is a Co-operative incorporated under the Co-operative Societies Act and formed by like-minded individuals interested in providing support for caregivers.

2. What is the mission of SCCL?

The mission of SCCL, a social enterprise, is to:

- Empower caregivers with relevant skills
- Help equip and prepare new caregivers
- Provide support to caregivers to enable them to care for their own needs and well-being
- Advocate for caregiver support
- Enlighten the larger society on the social and emotional challenges faced by caregivers and to recognise their important social contribution to the family and society.

3. Who is eligible to join SCCL?

Citizens and residents of Singapore

4. What type of membership does SCCL offer?

SCCL offers two types of membership:

- a) Ordinary membership
- b) Institutional membership

5. How can I join SCCL?

By completing this application form and subscribing for a minimum of one share.

6. Where is SCCL located and what are the operating hours?

81 Anson Road,
Level 8 Suite 8.31
SINGAPORE 079908

Email: membership@silvercaregivers.org.sg

Tel: 6536 3648

Fax: 6438 3325

Website: www.silvercaregivers.org.sg

Operational hours are:

Monday to Friday: 9am to 5pm

(Excluding Public Holidays)

AFFIX STAMP

Silver Caregivers Co-operative Limited

81 ANSON ROAD
LEVEL 8 SUITE 8.31
SINGAPORE 079908

SOCIAL SUPPORT

- Social Events
- Member Networking

PRACTICAL SUPPORT

- Information Hotline
- Skills Training
- Respite Service matching screened past caregivers with current caregivers needing assistance
- Access to preferentially priced caregiving supplies and assistive equipment

Caring for the Caregiver

